"The Music Critic"

A music critic from Great Britain admitted, "Hip-hop music makes me want to vomit." I must give him credit; he does not keep his feelings a secret.

The critic was so bitter he would not quit talking. "I would rather smell a rabbit's armpit. That 'music' is unfit for my ears."

He stated, "I prefer jazz music; something with a trumpet. Those talented musicians have merit."

I must admit, he has a legitimate point.
