"No Bubbles in the Bathtub"

A grub worm knocked on Bubba's door and requested to come inside. The insect immediately jumped into the bathtub and asked, "May I please have some bubbles for my bath." Bubba responded, "Why do you need to scrub in a tub?" The grub worm replied, "I am going to a club."

Bubba thought aloud, "This is silly!" He then threw the grub worm outside near a shrub in sub-zero weather.

What would you do if you were Bubba?
