"You Deserve It"

My friend wanted to eat cake with the best strawberry preserve. She was getting on my nerves. I told her, "Conserve your energy. I will reserve a table for two."

When the waiter walked towards her, I observed the verve in her smile. Unfortunately, the waiter swerved and returned to the kitchen. Her smiled turned upside down. It curved towards the ground.

The waiter came back to our table with extra strawberry preserve and insisted, "You deserve it."
