"Sirloins Would Not Cause Turmoil"

I was appointed the house cook.

I boiled soybeans with moist coyote
(an animal related to wolves) meat.

I sprinkled oysters (shellfish) on top to make a stew (like a thick soup) and then covered it with foil.

My housemates voiced their concerns.
I did not know my creative cooking was going to cause turmoil. The food will probably spoil.

I should have made sirloin steaks instead of boiled soybeans with coyote meat.
