"Time to Workout"

My younger brother announced, "Time to workout. To play football, you must be stout." I shouted back, "Leave the house without me!" He countered in a soft voice, "You don't have to be so loud. Now get your head out of the clouds. One must pour every ounce, every pound of your life into your dreams. If not, there will not be any doubt about the final outcome. The other team will rout (easily defeat) US."

I wanted to make my brother proud. I bounced out of bed. Once my feet hit the ground, I responded, "Time to workout!"
