

#135 ank

tank- powerful military vehicle.

bank- a business for holding and loaning money.

blank- an empty space.

sank- past tense of sink, below water or the ground.

spank- slap with an open hand, especially someone's backside.

drank- past tense of drink, swallow liquid.

thank- being grateful.

flank- area between your ribs and hip.

cranky- (informal) a bad mood.

thankless- not appreciated.

prank- a practical joke.

bankrupt- beyond broke, can't pay the money you owe.

Word Search #135 ank

W	E	S	S	L	Z	Y	O	I	X
D	F	B	P	R	O	T	V	B	F
Q	L	Y	A	B	I	H	P	A	C
S	A	R	N	L	D	A	V	N	I
A	N	F	K	A	R	N	F	K	V
F	K	J	Z	N	A	K	F	U	T
E	S	F	K	K	N	H	E	F	C
H	A	R	R	B	K	N	J	O	W
N	N	B	V	Q	B	C	H	V	H
H	K	S	T	A	N	K	N	L	M

blank

tank

spank

flank

drank

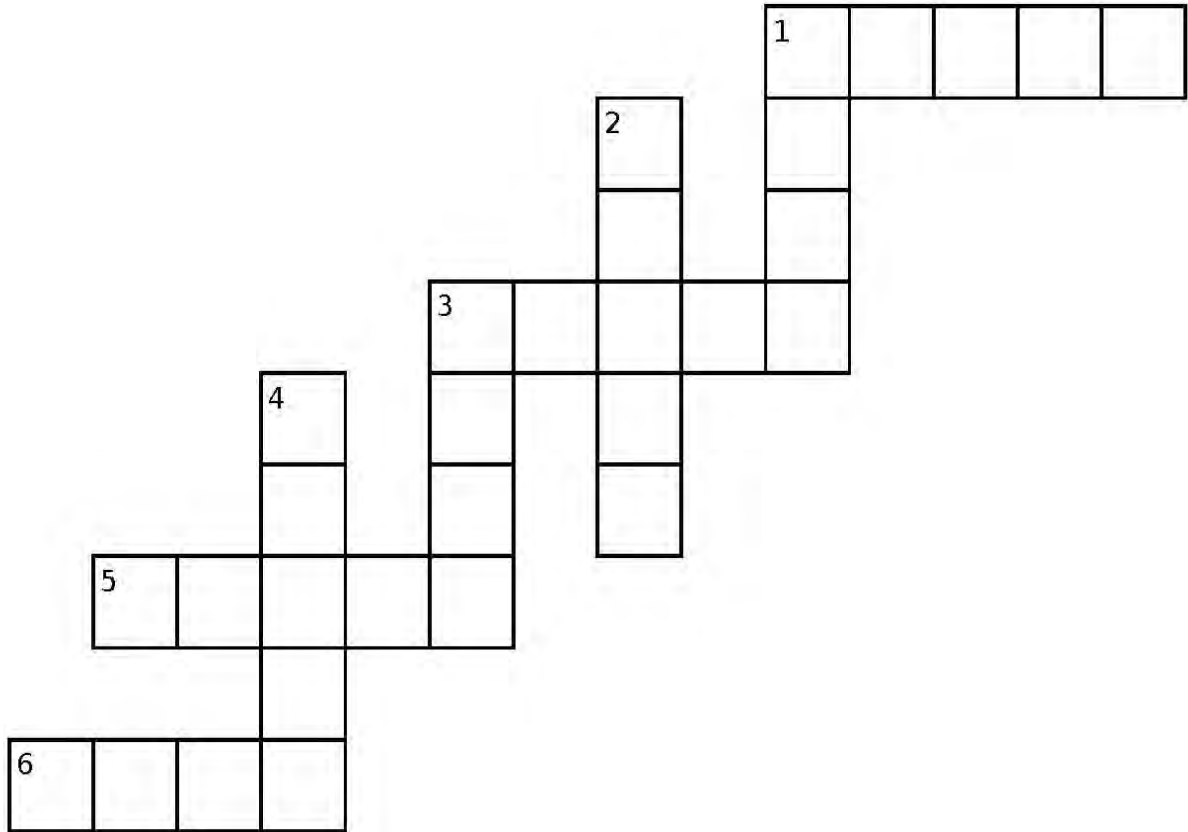

bank

thank sank

10

Crossword Puzzle #135 ank

Down:

1. past tense of sink, below water or the ground.
2. an empty space.
3. powerful military vehicle.
4. area between your ribs and hip.

Across:

1. slap with an open hand, especially someone's backside.
3. being grateful.
5. past tense of drink, swallow liquid.
6. a business for holding and loaning money.

#135 ank

tank bank blank sank

1) It is best to save money in a _____.

2) When I join the army, I want to drive a
_____.

3) He did not write anything on the paper; it was _____.

4) There was a hole in the boat. That is why it
_____.

spank drank thank flank

5) It is nice to say _____ you.

6) I _____ four bottles of water.

7) If you _____ the child, he will cry.

8) My doctor told me I had a _____ pain.

Word Family Pattern

Word

Part of Speech

Word Family Pattern

Word

Part of Speech

Word Family Pattern

Word

Part of Speech

Word Family Pattern

Word

Part of Speech

Word Family Pattern

Word

Part of Speech

Word Family Pattern

Word

Part of Speech

Word Family Pattern

Word

Part of Speech

Word Family Pattern

Word

Part of Speech