"Pink Winks at the Crowd"

Last night was a talent show. It included a man named Pink who wore a mink coat. He liked to lip sync.

When the song began, Pink gave the crowd a wink. He did not have a wrinkle, but when he smiled the skin around his eyes crinkled. The moment he began to sing, Pink took a drink and then ate a Twinkie. I think this was the worst lip sync of all-time.

It was a joke. Pink tried to stink! When he left the stage, he had twinkles in his eyes.
