"Do Not Exit the Hatch!"

The airplane door was attached (join two things) with a latch on the hatch.

A pirate with an eyepatch will catch anyone who tries to unlock the latch. He stood guard while eating a batch of cookies.

I watched while I stretched my long legs. Nobody tried to exit the hatch until the plane landed.
