"A Turtle Wrestled a Beetle for a Skittle"

A turtle and a beetle saw a skittle. They did not want to share it. They decided to settle their difference with a wrestling match. The beetle was small and fast, and the turtle was big and slow. Leaves rustled around the wrestlers in a classic battle of size versus speed!

A rattlesnake slid by while whistling in a gentle manner. It ate the skittle.

The beetle asked the turtle, "Why did we wrestle when we could have split the skittle?"
