Advanced "The Gift of Magic"

Angie was a giant girl from Belgium. She had long legs like a giraffe and a silly imagination.

Angie shouted, "I am going to give you the gift of magic. I will begin when you close your eyes. Now I will make this veggie sandwich disappear."

When I opened my eyes, the veggie sandwich was gone. Angie did not give me a clue until she giggled and a tomato fell out of her mouth.

I learned one thing about Angie. She is not allergic to tomatoes!
