"Repair My Chairs"

I had a pair of chairs from Zaire (Central Africa) that needed to be repaired. I went upstairs where a debonair man with flair declared (announced), "I compare (what is similar and different) the quality to something like warfare."

To my despair, I am now aware the condition is not even fair.
Every time one sits and they move back and forth, I will call them rocking chairs!
