"Santa Needs a New Career"

Rudolph was a red-nosed reindeer. Every December, it would volunteer to fly through the atmosphere (air). When children looked up, they would cheer.

The kids waited for the season premiere (first). The man they revere (admire) may give them a souvenir (an object that reminds you of something).

The sled veered off course when Santa steered past a cow jumping over the moon. Santa was nowhere to be found. An elf engineer cried, "Santa fell to the ground!" Rudolph jeered, "Santa, you need to find a new career."

Santa held his knee and sneered, "Do you think I should move where the weather is not so severe (extreme) and make chandeliers (a fancy light that hangs from the ceiling)?"
