"Employees of the Month"

Two employees made their boss a beef entree. Instead of pre-heating the oven at 350 degrees, they turned it on high.

One commented, "See how the top is burnt. I think we overcooked it." The other agreed, "Yes, should we offer an apology?"

The boss put a napkin on his knee, took a sip of coffee and then had a bite of beef. He revealed*, "This is fine indeed!"

Revealed- make something known that was unknown.*
