

#92 ind Advanced

"Embrace the Grind"

The wrestler growled (an angry sound),
"Embrace the grind."

His mind is strong. He refuses to quit.
He is the kind of guy who will find a way to win, even if he is behind on points.

Breathing heavily and nearly out of wind, the wrestler won by pinfall (victory by putting your opponent's shoulders on a mat).

Good things happen when hard work and talent are combined (joined).

Time to relax and unwind.

#92 ind "Embrace the Grind"

1) Is the wrestler always winning the match?

---

---

2) Did the wrestler win? If so, how?

---

---

3) What do they mean by "nearly out of wind"?

---

---

4) Tell me about a time you refused to quit?

---

---

---

5) Please underline all the nouns once, the verbs twice and circle every adjective.