"A Polite Letter"

If you want to invite your former band members, write a polite letter telling them we should reunite. They will be quite impressed!

Dear Friends,

We were an elite (great) band until we crashed like a meteorite. In hindsight, we stayed out too late every night. It will be a delight to recite old songs such as "I Got Frostbite Flying a Kite" or "A Petite (small) Suite (a series of pieces in music)."

I have a practice site reserved. Our future can be bright.

Sincerely, Mr. White
