

#99 one Advanced

"Put Your Head on My Collarbone"

She grabbed the microphone and apologized in a somber (sad) tone, "I must postpone the drone show because of a cyclone."

One boy started to moan (a complaining sound). She put his head on her collarbone and expressed, "You're not alone."

The boy stopped crying when a well-known man played his baritone saxophone.

#99 one Advanced

"Put Your Head on My Collarbone"

1) Why was the show postponed?

2) What emotion did the boy have in the second paragraph? _____

3) What made the person stop crying?

4) If you had a microphone, what would you say to a crowd? _____

5) Please underline all the nouns once, the verbs twice and circle every adjective.