

war

#121 war (noun)

The USA declared war

(two or more groups fighting with weapons)
on December 8, 1941.

wart

#122 wart (noun)

A small growth
on the skin
caused by a virus is a wart.

Toads
do not cause
warts.

warm

#123 warm (adjective)

Warm
soup is waiting you.

(verb) The weather will warm up.

swarm

#124 swarm (noun)

A swarm (a large group of insects)
of locust is outside!

Notice the collective noun, swarm, uses a singular verb, is.

could

#125 could (modal verb)

He could not dance well.

Could (request) you please help me?

Observe how the above sentence is not past tense.

would

#126 would (modal verb)

Would (offer) you like something to eat?

Would in the past is similar to used to.

When I was a kid, I would play basketball all day.

should

#127 should (modal verb)

Ask advice,

“What should I wear?”

Make a request,

“You should be thankful.”

Express what is expected,

“He should be here soon.”

done

#128 done (verb)

Irregular verb, past participle of do.

I have done

(accomplished, completed or exhausted)

the best I can.

(adverb) I want the steak well done

(cooked thoroughly).

none

#129 none (pronoun)

None (not any) of my students are here today.

gone

#130 gone (verb)

Irregular verb, past participle of go.

I should have gone
with them.

(adjective) All the food is gone.