

delicious

#321 delicious (adjective)

Who made this delicious (excellent) pizza?

discipline

#322 discipline (verb)

Parents must discipline
(follow rules or be punished)
their children.

(noun) To maintain discipline is difficult for some.

Discipline, like many words on this list, has multiple definitions.

A military discipline (exercise) or a branch of knowledge (psychology is a discipline) are a couple examples.

doubt

#323 doubt (noun)

I have some doubt (to be uncertain)
about his story.

(verb) Don't doubt (question) your ability.

dungeon

#324 dungeon (noun)

Underneath the castle is a dungeon (a prison cell).

echo

#325 echo (noun)

An echo is a reflection of sound waves.

(verb) His voice echoed in the caves.

effort

#326 effort (noun)

To do a good job requires effort (using physical and/or mental power).

embarrass

#327 embarrass (verb)

Do not embarrass

(make uncomfortable)

your teacher by making noise in the hallway.

environment

#328 environment (noun)

A fun teacher creates a good learning environment (everything around us, can be work or all life on earth).

^ ç æ* * ^ | æ ^

#329 exaggerate (verb)

I might exaggerate

*(to make something seem greater than it really is,
beyond the truth)*

when I tell a story.

exercise

#330 exercise (noun)

Exercise (physical effort) will make a person feel good.

(verb) Does he still exercise everyday?