

missile

#361 missile (noun)

A weapon that flies towards a target is a missile.

misspell

#362 misspell (verb)

Study for the test so you don't misspell (spell incorrectly) any words.

mustache

#363 mustache (noun)

How would your teacher look with a mustache

(hair above a top lip)?

nausea

#364 nausea (noun)

I experienced nausea

(sickness of the stomach)

on a ship.

Nauseous is an adjective.

Modern music makes me nauseous

(disgusted over something).

necessary

#365 necessary (adjective)

Protein is a necessary (important) part of our diet.

Meat and fish

Cheese

Eggs

Beans

Bread

Hummus

Nuts and seeds

neighbor

#366 neighbor (noun)

A person living next door is a neighbor.

neither

#367 neither (adverb)

You should not do it, neither (not either of two things) would they.

(conjunction) Neither Mrs. Snakehead nor
Mr. Orangehead are here.

(adjective) Neither sock smells any good.

(pronoun) Neither of the girls are going.

niece

#368 niece (noun)

A daughter of a person's brother or sister is called a niece.

nostalgia

#369 nostalgia (noun)

A pleasant memory of the past is called nostalgia.

occasion

#370 occasion (noun)

Her birthday is always an important occasion (a special event).

(verb) It happened to me on more than one occasion (a specific event).