

pharmacy

#381 pharmacy (noun)

A pharmacy (store)
sells medical drugs.

plaid

#382 plaid (adjective)

A man from Scotland
is wearing a plaid (a checkered, wool cloth) scarf.

portrait

#383 portrait (noun)

Frida Kahlo (1907-1954)

painted a self-portrait

*(paintings, drawings, photographs,
etc. usually from the shoulders up).*

Remember, when you film a video on your phone, only upload it to YouTube if it were recorded on landscape, not portrait!

possess

#384 possess (noun)

I possess (have, belonging to) the power to tell silly jokes.

premise

#385 premise (noun)

An idea thought to be true and used as a basis of an argument is a premise.

A premise (what your story is about)
will help guide the writer.

Premises (noun) A land with a building on it,
"Leave the premises at once."

promise

#386 promise (noun)

It is important to keep a promise

(verbal or in writing about something that will be done).

(verb) He promised to give me chocolates.

proceed

#387 proceed (verb)

We will proceed

(continue after a pause, move forward)

with the math lesson
after a break.

(noun) The proceeds (money) from the fundraiser will help many children.

protein

#388 protein (noun)

Beans, eggs, fish, milk
and broccoli are a few sources of protein

(a food or a liquid that helps maintain good health).

punctual

#389 punctual (adjective)

Being punctual (on time)
doesn't take talent.

390

quartz

#390 quartz (noun)

Quartz is a hard mineral and usually transparent that can be used to make watches.

