

first

#71 first (adjective)

The first time I saw you,
I fell in love.

(adverb) I first visited New York as a teenager.

last

#72 last (adjective)

Please read the last sentence again.

(adverb) He was last seen playing video games.

to

#73 to (preposition)

Let's go to the movies.

Has many definitions, such as direction, purpose, etc.
Can be other parts of speech.

from

#74 from (preposition)

I am home from (a starting point) school.

only

#75 only (adjective)

This is the only crayon I have.

(adverb) The tickets are only available online.

Has many definitions and can be a conjunction.

both

#76 both (adjective)

Drive with both

(two people or things)

hands on the steering wheel.

right

#77 right (adjective)

Is this the right (correct) tool for the job?

(adjective) Most people write with their right hand.

(noun) You have the right (legal entitlement)
to remain silent.

left

#78 left (adjective)

About ten percent of people write with their left hand.

(adverb) Turn left (direction) at the stop sign.

(verb) We left (depart) him at home.

Past simple and past participle of leave.

wrong

#79 wrong (adjective)

That is the wrong answer.

(adverb) He was wrong again.

please

#80 please (adverb)

Please turn off
your cell phone.

(interjection) Please, raise your hand!