

A fun game to play is Simon Says.

The teacher, Simon, gives instructions, "Simon says put one hand ON your desk."

If the teacher does not say Simon says, then the students ignore the instruction. "Put your finger IN your ear."

To keep kids from being disappointed when eliminated, they must wall sit until two people are remaining.

Simon Says can also be played with an eraser and a plastic cup. The slowest person is eliminated.

The teacher will grab a Popsicle stick with a student's name to return to the game.
