In is used for location.

"My phone is in(side) my pocket."

Into is used for movement.

"I put my phone into my pocket."

in into

He is walking ____ his house.

into

He is walking into his house.

in into

He is ____ the front yard.

in

He is in the front yard.

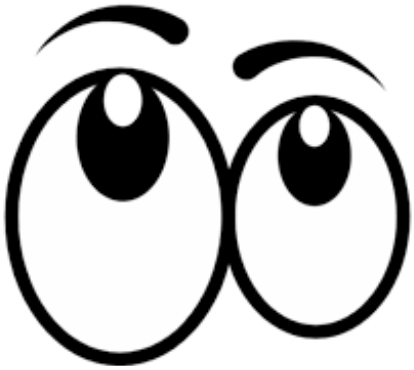
in into



A car smashed _____ a wall.

into

A car smashed into a wall.

in into

The keys are _____ the lock.

in

The keys are in the lock.

in into

He will pour water _____ a cup.

into

He will pour water into a cup.

in into

He walked _____ a wall.

into

He walked into a wall.

in into

My keys are somewhere ____ the sand.

in

My keys are somewhere in the sand.

in into

She ran _____ the kitchen!

into

She ran into the kitchen!

in into

What is _____ the road?

in

What is in the road?

* On the road is also acceptable.

in into

She has something ____ her eye.

in

She has something in her eye.

GOOD JOB!