

his vs him

Possessive Adjectives

There are seven+:

my, our, your, its, his, her & their.

A possessive adjective tells us who or what owns something.

Also, it shows possession in a sentence.

"This is his book."

A sentence can end with his.

"Is that your book?"

"No, it is his (possessive pronoun)."

him

his

Is that

_____ hat?

his

Is that his hat?

him

his

Do you like _____ hat?

his

Do you like
his hat?

him

his

The hat looks good on _____.

him

The hat looks
good on him.

him

his

I like _____ haircut.

his

I like his haircut.

him

his

That is _____ cat.

his

That is his cat.

him

his

The cat likes

_____.

him

The cat likes
him.

him

his

           cat sat
on a mat.

His

His cat sat
on a mat.

him

his

A rat bit

_____

him

A rat bit
him.

him

his

Did a bat
hit _____?

him

Did a bat
hit him?

him

his

Pat sat on mat.

his

Pat sat on his mat.

him

his

We told                     
he is fat.

him

We told him
he is fat.

