

Possessive Adjectives

There are seven+:

my, our, your, its, his, her & their.

A possessive adjective tells us who or what owns something.

Also, it shows possession in a sentence.

"This is her book."

A sentence can end with her.

"We like her (possessive pronoun)."

she

her

                     is tall.

She

She is tall.

she her

It is ball.

her

It is her
ball.

she

her

Did you see
           fall?

her

Did you see
her fall?

she

her

           is happy.

She

She is happy.

she her

Yes, you like

                     ■

her

Yes, you like
her.

she

her

           eyes
are blue.

Her

Her eyes are blue.

she

her

           is on the phone.

She

She is on the phone.

she her

What color is _____ dress?

her

What color is
her dress?

she          her

hair
is black.

Her

Her hair is black.

she her

Did            turn off the light?

she

Did she turn
off the light?

she

her

_____ likes

_____.

She her

She likes
her.

GOOD JOB!

