

"Even Time" Sight Word #065 even

He likes to eat anything.

He will even eat
a smelly sock.

He can even eat two shoes!

Hey, two is an even number.

We do not

even (equal) have time for math
when we teach English.

Should we give math
even time?

No, we have something

even better to do...
talk about smelly socks and shoes.
