

threat

Something or someone who may cause harm (especially if you don't do something).

threat

She does not think the animal is a threat.

threat

Your turn to create a sentence.

threat

threat

A country is under threat of a war.

threat

My computer is under a threat of attack.

threat

There is a threat that legal action will be taken.

threat

There is a threat (chance) of a storm.

threat

He was a threat (chance to make something happen)
to score on any play.

threat

Her boss made another empty threat (no intentions on taking action).

threat

Is that a threat or a promise (asking if the person will take action)?

threat

Never make a threat
you cannot carry out

(you should never threaten to do something you won't do because people will not believe you are serious when you make a threat).

threat

Thankfully,
the bomb threat
was not legitimate.

