

"What Do You Notice?"

Sight Word #230 notice

Man: Do you notice anything differently about me?

Woman: I notice that your clothes are new.

Man: What else do you notice?

Woman: I notice that you have a different hairstyle.

Man: What else do you notice?

Woman: I notice that you ask too many questions.

Man: Perfect! I want to get dialogue from you in a short story using the word notice.

Woman: Hmm, you intrigue me.
Just joking...I rather be in a morgue than with you!

Man: Someone send her notice that she should be vague.
