

"Can a Bookkeeper Keep Count?"

Sight Word #294 bookkeeper

A bookkeeper had a bizarre job.

He had to keep track of every biscuit people ate.

Did the bookkeeper count tens, hundreds and thousands.

Did the bookkeeper lose track.

At the end of the month, his boss stated, "I hope your books are accurate."

The bookkeeper replied, "Yes, not one biscuit was eaten. They all ate cookies."

The British boss fired the bookkeeper.

The bookkeeper did not appreciate this.
