

"A Really Bad Decision"

Sight Word #319 decision

What is the worst decision you ever made?

The worst decision I made was making counterfeit pyramids.

The ancient Pyramids of Giza are priceless; therefore, I commanded my one million employees to make counterfeit pyramids.

In just 50 years,
I had several counterfeit pyramids.

This turned out to be a poor decision.

I was in debt.

The decision to build pyramids in a cemetery was a bad idea because I did not get any visitors.
