

Prepositions of Time

in

in the morning
in the afternoon
in the evening
in January (months)
in the spring (seasons)
in 2019 (years)
in the 1970s (decades)

on

on Saturday morning
on Sunday afternoon
on Monday evening
on January 1
on holiday*
on the weekend
on the phone

at

Technology isn't exactly a
preposition of time.

at 7:15 pm
at sunrise
at night
at midnight

* English has exceptions to rules. Sometimes you can say at Christmas...

on at

I am awake _____ 5 a.m.

at

I am awake
at 5 a.m. on          at

Let's walk _____ sunrise.

at

Let's walk
at sunrise.

on at

School starts
Monday.

on

School starts
on Monday.

on at

He was still out _____ night.

at

He was still
out at night.

on at

Where
were you
_____ midnight?

at

Where
were you
at midnight?

on at

         Saturday night, they will be boxing.

On

On Saturday night, they will
be boxing.

on at

Yes, they will
be boxing
_____ 8 pm.

at

Yes, they will
be boxing
at 8 pm.

on at

Boxing events
usually happen
_____ night.

at

Boxing events
usually happen
at night.

on at

We had fun
_____ the weekend.

on

We had fun
on the weekend.

on at

Let's meet _ 11 am.

at

Let's meet
at 11 am.

on at

We will have a party

New Year's Day.

on

We will have a party on
New Year's Day.

on at

____ July 20, 1969
man walked
____ the moon.

On        on

On    July 20, 1969
man walked
on the moon.

