

Verbals part 2 (sight words 266-270)

Circle the infinitive, cross out the preposition.

To + verb = infinitive.

To + noun/pronoun = preposition.

1. To throw a football with accuracy takes practice.

2. He's likely to get adequate sleep tonight.

3. She promised to address the audience.

4. Going to the lunchroom, I saw two accidents caused by too many people in the hallway.

5. To accompany me to the movies will make me happy.

Verbals part 2 (sight words 266-270)

Circle the infinitive, cross out the preposition.

To + verb = infinitive.

To + noun/pronoun = preposition.

1. To throw a football with accuracy takes practice.

2. He's likely to get adequate sleep tonight.

3. She promised to address the audience.

4. Going to the lunchroom, I saw two accidents caused by too many people in the hallway.

5. To accompany me to the movies will make me happy.