

THE NATION'S PREMIER LITERARY GATHERING: MIAMI BOOK FAIR INTERNATIONAL,

~ Miami Dade College Wolfson Campus, November 13th - 20th, 2006 ~

For more than two decades, Miami Book Fair International has presented the most influential writers in the Americas and beyond. It is the largest and finest literary event in the U.S., attracting hundreds of thousands of book lovers every year to Miami Dade College's Wolfson Campus. Over eight days each November, the fair presents a stellar schedule of readings, workshops, discussions and entertainment featuring prize-winning writers, up-and-coming literary talent and best-selling authors from around the globe who cover a wide range of topics, from controversial current events to poetry and popular fiction.

The 2006 Fair Flirts with the Classics, entertaining the works of classical musicians, artists and writers; lure us to the Mystery Stage with renowned Edgar Award winners; and confront the issues of the day via Current Affairs Panels, among a host of other special attractions.

The Miami Book Fair International, which regularly presents Nobel Prize and National Book Award winners, is also one of the largest presenters of Spanish-language writers in the nation. The Fair also offers a Children's Alley, the International Village, a contingent of Latin authors, and the Congress of Authors and Street Fair on November 17-19

For more than two decades, Miami Book Fair International has presented the most prominent writers in the Americas and beyond. It is the largest and finest literary event in the U.S. that draws hundreds of thousands of book lovers every year to Miami Dade College's Wolfson Campus. Over eight days each November, the fair presents a stellar schedule of readings, panels, discussions and entertainment featuring prize-winning writers, up-and-coming literary talents, and best-selling authors from around the globe who cover a wide range of topics, from current events to poetry and popular fiction.

The 2006 Fair Flirts with the Classics, entertaining the works of classical musicians and writers; lure us to the Mystery Stage with renowned Edgar Award winners; air the issues of the day via Current Affairs Panels, among a host of other special attractions. The Miami Book Fair International, which regularly presents Nobel Prize and National Book Award winners, is also one of the largest presenters of Spanish-language writers in the U.S. The Fair also offers a Children's Alley, the International Village, a contingent of Latin American authors and the Congress of Authors and Street Fair on November 11.

