Your item will auto-renew for the same term length and use the payment method on file at the regular rates reflected in your account unless you cancel. If you have other products and services (domains, which renew annually, or add-ons) those might renew on a separate date. You'll get separate reminders for those.

You may cancel at any time before your next bill date to avoid being charged. To cancel simply log in to your account here now.

Your continued use of IPOWER products and services are subject to our Auto Renewal Terms, Terms of Service, and Cancellation Policy. You also acknowledge receipt of our Privacy Notice.
