Ann G. Lawthers, Sc. D

Learn how to find information about your ancestor using records for property, real or personal, and estate probates. Probate packets include much more than a will; they also include inventories, accounts, list of debts, or distribution lists along with census agricultural schedules and homesteading files. Ann G. Lawthers will help us "Follow The Money" as we learn how to thoroughly research probate records.

Ann G. Lawthers, Sc.D. is a Genealogist with the Brue Family Learning Center at the New England Historic Genealogical Society – American Ancestors. She lectures regularly on behalf of American Ancestors at conferences, workshops and meetings.

At American Ancestors she collaborates to prepare multi-week online courses, single day online conferences, and single session webinars. Ann focuses on New England and Mid-Atlantic research, and migration patterns. Secondary interests include the Southern Colonies and Ireland. She is a graduate of Wellesley College and the Harvard School of Public Health with degrees in Health Policy.
